Congressman Joe Wilson Siding with America's Patients SWAP Act Pledge

WEST COLUMBIA -- Congressman Joe Wilson was in West Columbia Monday leading a Replace and Reform health care event at his campaign headquarters

The representative and vocal critic of the health care reform asked his supporters to sign a Siding with America's Patients or SWAP Act Pledge

"The American people are understanding that we need to make a change, and there is hope," explains Wilson. "The change would be to repeal the bill that passed last week."

House Majority Whip James Clyburn has said the health care bill is the civil rights issue of the 21st century and the bill helps make health care available to everyone

The pledge will be taken back to Washington DC
